

C Am C
Five little owls in an old elm tree
G
Fluffy and puffy as owls could be,
C Am C
Blinking and winking with big round eyes
Am C
At the big round moon that hung in the skies.
C Am G
As I passed beneath, I could hear one say,

C G
“There’ll be mouse for supper, there will today.”

C
Then all of them hooted

Am C
“Tu-whit, Tu-who!”

Yes, mouse for supper,

Am G C
Hoo hoo, hoooo!”
